The entirety of the publications of the collaborative encyclopedia of plants are placed under a cc-by license, with the exception of the contents under the rights of particular, external authors, who remain the property of their respective authors.

You can, for the content under cc-by license, take it back and modify it for any use, including commercial, as long as you credit the page from which you take your content and indicate this obligation. It also applies to new contents, inspired by yours, in fine from this collaborative encyclopedia.

By becoming an editor of the encyclopedia, you accept the present conditions and assign your publications to PEPINATURE.

By becoming an editor, you take responsibility for all your publications, and remove from the encyclopedia, if necessary, anything that is illegal and could be harmful to it.

It is reminded that it is possible to be inspired by works under copyright, but forbidden to make a copy, even partial.
